WILL SURRENDER PORTER CHARLTON

Secretary Knox Has Granted Italy's Request.

WIFE MURDER IS CHARGED

Nation Compelled, Under Its Treaty, to Deliver Fugitives to Italy—Question of Charlton's Insanity One for Courts to Decide.

Secretary Knox has granted the request of Italy to surrender Porter Charlton, charged with the murder of his wife at Lake Como.

The secretary holds that the fact that Italy refuses to surrender her citizens to the United States for trial does not relieve this country from the obligation of the extradition treaty to surrender to Italy fugitives from justice from that country.

The question of the insanity of Charlton, it is suggested, is one for the courts and not for the department to determine.

Had Secretary Knox refrained from acting upon this case for six days, Porter Charlton would have been a free man, as the statutes required final action in the case within sixty days from the date of his commitment.

MET DEATH IN FLAMES.

While Woman Was Hanging Pictures Clothing Caught Fire.

Mrs. Spurgeon Simpson met a horrible death by burning at her home in Rocky Creek district, near Lawrenceville, Ga. She was engaged in hanging some pictures and was standing on a table in front of an open fireplace when her clothing ignited and the flames rapidly spread over her body. She was at home alone, and before assistance could be secured she was burned so badly that death resulted in a short time.

Mrs. Simpson was 23 years of age, the wife of Spurgeon Simpson, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith. Her tragic death caused great grief in the community.

The remains were interred at Harmony Grove, the funeral being conducted by her old pastor, Rev. J. S. Askew, of Inman, Ga.

WITNESS SHOT TO DEATH.

Milton, Fla., Citizen Is Called to Front Door and Instantly Killed.

A Pensacola dispatch tells of the following tragedy:

Felix Corbin, a prominent citizen of Milton, and principal witness in the case of the United States against Sheriff Collins, of Santa Rosa county, Fla., and Sheriff Field, of Savannah, Ga., was called to his front door at Milton at a late hour and shot to death. Corbin had gone to his home early in the afternoon, and had just finished supper with his family when some one was heard calling from near the front gate.

Corbin went to the door and opened it, and when he did there was a volley of rifle and pistol shots and the man fell dead in the doorway, four shots having penetrated the body.

Corbin was prominent here a few weeks ago and also in Savannah last week when the United States court heard the cases against the two sheriffs.

PRIMITIVE PHYSIC.

John Wesley as a Physician and Some of His Remedies.

It is not generally known that John Wesley in one of his brief intervals of leisure published a sort of medical vade mecum called not inappropriately "Primitive Physic." It was first published in 1747, and it ran into at least twenty-four editions. The author was greatly surprised there was so swift and large a demand for it. In the later editions he was able to add the word "Tried" to certain remedies the virtues of which he had meanwhile found opportunities of testing. After five years' careful trial and notwithstanding the objections of the learned he recommends for the ague "to go into the cold bath just before the cold fit," but omits to say how to time the coming of the fit. To prevent apoplexy use the cold bath and drink only water. If this proves useless and a fit should declare itself you have only to "put a handful of salt with a pint of cold water and if possible pour it down the throat of the patient." To cure asthma "take a pint of cold water every morning, washing the head therein immediately after." Wesley gives four ways of curing old age—"take raw water morning and evening" or "a decoction of nettles" or "chew cinnamon daily and swallow your saliva." The two great panaceas in the Wesleyan doctrine are the use of cold water and the use of electricity, and at the end of the book are columns of every sort of disease which may be overcome by these simple expedients.—St. James' Gazette.

IMPRISONED JOYS.

Keep your faith in all beautiful things—in the sun when it is hidden, in the spring when it is gone—and then you will find that duty and service and sacrifice, all the old ogres and bugbears of life, have joys imprisoned in their deepest dungeons. And it is for you to set them free—the immortal joys that no one, no living soul or fate or circumstance, can rob you of once you have released them.—Roy Rolfe Gilson.

VICTOR BERGER.

First Socialist Ever Elected to United States Congress.

$748,414,861 NEEDED BY U. S.

Secretary MacVeagh Submits Estimates for Appropriations for 1912.

The estimate of appropriations required for every branch of the federal government during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, aggregating $748,414,861, were submitted to congress by Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh. This grand total stands against estimates of $745,067,197 and appropriations of $805,294,513 for the current fiscal year, which appropriation included over $10,000,000 for the census and over $10,000,000 for the postal deficiency and other deficiencies.

The estimates were distributed as follows:

War department, $205,257,540; interior department, $189,151,875; treasury department, $141,599,997; agriculture, $19,681,066; navy department, $128,942,158; commerce and labor, $16,276,970; district of Columbia, $13,602,786; legislative, $13,426,806; justice, $10,069,576; state, $4,875,576; independent offices including interstate commerce commission, $2,638,695; postoffice department proper, $1,697,490; deficiency in postal revenues, no estimate yet; executive, $998,170; territorial governments, $202,150.

BEDOUINS MASSACRE.

More Than One Hundred Christians Were Killed.

A telegram from Jerusalem states that Bedouins have massacred the Turkish garrison at Kerak, a town in the Turkish vilayet of Syria, and killed more than 100 Christian inhabitants of the place in revenge for the execution of a Bedouin chief.

The Bedouins, the dispatch adds, now hold the fortress, in the vicinity of which there had been desultory fighting between tribesmen and the government troops for the past year and a half.

Kerak, formerly the capital of Moab, has a population of 8,000, of whom 6,000 are Moslems. The town is the last on the road from Damascus to Mecca, where Christians reside. It stands on the mountains of Moab and may be seen from Jerusalem, 50 miles away.

There are no American missionaries there, the only missionary station being that of the British church missionary society for Africa and the east. This is a branch of the organization at El Salt and is composed of one missionary, his wife and one native worker.

END TO ABSOLUTE REIGN.

Political Events in China Are Moving Rapidly.

It seems safe to announce that the ancient absolute regime in China will exist only historically after the Chinese new year, in January, 1911. It is stated that the throne has decided to accede to the resolution of the imperial senate praying for the immediate creation of a constitutional cabinet.

Political events in China have moved with a rapidity that appears almost revolutionary when it is considered that the provincial assemblies representing the first step toward popular government in the empire's history of thousands of years were inaugurated so recently as October 14, 1909.

BATH TUB TRUST INDICTED.

Criminal Proceedings Grew Out of Civil Suit to Dissolve Corporation.

The anti-trust campaign of Attorney General Wickesham has shifted to Detroit, with the result that indictments were returned by the federal grand jury against 16 firms and 32 individuals alleged to have secured control of 85 per cent of the annual output of enamel ironware bathtubs, sinks, lavatories, etc., in the United States. The combine is commonly known as the "bathtub trust."

The criminal proceedings grew out of a civil suit to dissolve the alleged combination, begun by the government in the federal court at Baltimore, hearings being held in Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York within the last 40 days.

Dr. Syntax.

On the English coast, at Land's End, there stands a curiously formed bowlder with a profile resembling that of a human face. It is supposed that once the rocky head was held proudly erect and could look out over the blue sea, but during some period of disturbance the huge bowlder was thrown forward, so that now the forehead of the man rests against a neighboring rock. All these rugged and massive pieces bordering the coast are fine granite. Locally the curious bowlder is known as Dr. Syntax.

CHANGES IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE

Lodge May Succeed Reid at St. James' Court.

GENERAL SHAKING UP

Many Important Changes Are Determined Upon—Banker Schmidlapp Goes to Russia—Huntington Willson Will Be Ambassador to Turkey.

A general shake-up in the diplomatic service is scheduled for February 1, according to gossip around the dinner tables in Washington official society. It is stated that President Taft has decided to leave all diplomatic selections save one to Secretary of State Knox and his departmental advisers, and that a number of important changes have already been determined upon. The one personal appointment upon which the president will make ment which the president will make is that of J. G. Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati, to be ambassador to Russia, to succeed William Woodville Rockhill.

Mr. Schmidlapp, who is a prominent banker and a man of great wealth, is a warm personal friend of President Taft.

Senator Henry Capot Lodge, of Massachusetts, is slated to succeed Whitelaw Reid, of New York, as ambassador to the court of St. James. Rumor to this effect has been current from the time it appeared in securing re-election to the senate. It has been denied, but the report is most persistent now, but the senator is preparing to announce his retirement from the contest for the senatorship, and will enter the diplomatic service.

Huntington Willson, now assistant secretary of state, will be made ambassador to Turkey, according to this gossip, which has it that Mr. Willson is exceedingly desirous of securing this berth.

Thomas J. O'Brien, of Michigan, ambassador to Japan, will be transferred from Tokyo, it is said, to one of the important European posts, just which one it has not been determined as yet.

Former Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, will garner one of the ambassadorial plums, and may be named as the successor to Mr. O'Brien, although it is understood that he prefers to go to Europe.

Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who is one of the more prominent senatorial lame ducks as a result of the recent election, is talked of for a diplomatic appointment, but it is understood that the president has not waxed enthusiastic at the suggestion, and it is altogether improbable that more than one ambassadorship would be given to Indiana. Nothing less than an embassy would be inviting to Senator Beveridge.

It is stated now that no changes will be made for the present in the diplomatic representation at Paris or Berlin, but in view of the tip that a general shake-up is at hand shifts may be made in these important posts.

WOULD BE BURDENSOME.

Through Bills of Lading Proposition Stirrs Up Furor.

President's Taft recommendation in his annual message to congress relative to the guaranteeing of through cotton bills of lading has stirred up a furor among the cotton interests of the south, who assert that the president's suggested plan would result in a heavy load upon this industry.

President W. B. Thompson, of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, has issued a statement in which he sets forth the injustice of the plan to the southern cotton growers and merchants. Official action is expected to be taken within the next few days by the New Orleans exchange and by commercial bodies generally throughout the south as a protest to congress against the adoption of any such plan as that outlined in the president's message.

COTTON MARKET EXCITED.

Cotton Traders at New Orleans in Frenzy of Buying.

Traders on the floor of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange were precipitated into a frenzy of buying which rivaled the most exciting occurrence of the history of the exchange following the posting Friday of the department of agriculture's estimate of the cotton crop for this season.

There was an immediate advance from 34 to 39 points in the most active positions in the future department.

The department of agriculture reported the total production of cotton as 11,426,640 bales. The 1909 crop was 10,004,428 and the 1908 crop, 13,587,806.

700-FOOT FALL.

Boy Plunged to His Death in Home-made Aeroplane.

Beneath the rock upon which he fell from the 700-foot plunge in his "home-made" aeroplane, the body of Walter Archer, the 17-year-old inventor, of Salida, Cal., was buried by his parents, and on the grave they burned what was left of the wrecked machine. The burial of the lad at the spot where he met death was in accordance with his own wishes, expressed to his mother a few days before the accident.

Origin of Mythology.

Myths are the result of the natural and unconquerable desire on man's part to know the "reason why" of things. In the early stages of human society this instinct was as strong as it is today, and when in that faraway time man had his attention called to any phenomenon which had to him no obvious reason or explanation he invented and told a story to account for it. In such way all mythology had its birth, from the crudest stories of the lowest race to the splendid mythology of Greece and Rome.—New York American.
